

Hear Me Crying Lyrics

Hear me crying why won't you love me no more
I'm just a crying why won't you love me no more

I know now baby, I know I had you once before
I'd be lying baby if I told you it couldn't happen no more

I love you baby, time will prove my love is true
I believe now baby, I believe you hurt me some too

So how can you stand there, how can you stand and drive me from your door
Don't you hear me crying, oh won't you love me no more

I call you baby, I call you up on the phone
I don't believe him baby, that man that tell me you ain't home

I knock now baby, two three now times on your door
I know now baby, I don't think you hear me no more

Yeah I keep a knocking, I knock now two now three more times
I'm just standing in the rain now mama, just standing in the rain now a crying

How can you drive me, how can you drive me from you door
Don't you hear me crying, why don't you love me no more
I'm just a crying oh won't you love me no more
